1. An-cient of Days, who sit - test throned in glo - ry,
2. O ho - ly Fa - ther, who hast led thy chil - dren
3. O ho - ly Fa - ther, who hast led thy chil - dren
4. O Ho - ly Ghost, the Lord and the Life - giv - er,
5. O Tri - une God, with heart and voice a - dor - ing, to thee all knees are bent, all voic - es pray;

in all the a - ges with the fire and cloud,
in all the a - ges with the fire and cloud,
thine is the quick - ening power that gives in - crease:
praise we the good - ness that doth crown our days;

thy love has blessed the wide world's won - drous sto - ry
through seas dry - shod, through wea - ry wastes be - wil - dering
through seas dry - shod, through wea - ry wastes be - wil - dering from thee have flowed, as from a might - y riv - er, pray we that thou wilt hear us, still im - plor - ing with light and life since E - den's dawn - ing day.

to thee in rev - erent love our hearts are bowed.
to thee in rev - erent love our hearts are bowed.
our faith and hope, our fel - low - ship and peace.
thy love and fa - vor, kept to us al - ways.

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff at the top and a bass clef staff at the bottom. Both staves are in the key of D major (two sharps) and 4/4 time. The treble staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two sharps, and a common time signature. The melody is written in a simple, hymn-like style. The bass staff begins with a bass clef, a key signature of two sharps, and a common time signature. The bass line is also simple, providing a harmonic foundation for the melody. The lyrics are centered between the two staves and are written in a plain, sans-serif font. The lyrics are: "with light and life since E - den's dawn - ing day. to thee in rev - erent love our hearts are bowed. to thee in rev - erent love our hearts are bowed. our faith and hope, our fel - low - ship and peace. thy love and fa - vor, kept to us al - ways." The hyphens in the lyrics indicate syllables that span across two lines of text.
